

Rom 12:3 NIV

For by the grace given me I say to every one of you: Do not think of yourself more highly than you ought, but rather think of yourself with sober judgment, in accordance with the measure of faith God has given you.

Truths I Have Learned the Hard Way

These sins and/or weaknesses have cost me: time, money, peace, and relationships and have reduced my effectiveness in the Kingdom of God. With God's help I will overcome them.

I have gossiped – H *How I currently rate myself: Work in progress – WIP; Healed by the Lord - H

I have spoken pride fully and exaggerated the truth to make myself look good - WIP

I have lacked enthusiasm - WIP

I have dwelt on feelings of inferiority - WIP

I have thought negatively- H

I have failed to listened well - H

I have failed to concentrate on the job at hand - WIP

I have engaged in people pleasing- WIP

I have used vulgar language - H

I have been indecisive - WIP

I have failed to persist at things - H

I have wasted money with impulse purchases - H

I have yielded to anger and hurt others with my words - WIP

I have been easily offended and wrote people off - H

I have been afraid to take risks - WIP

I have spent too much money on firearms and shooting accessories - H

I have been too serious and not been willing to laugh at myself - H

I have been guilty of not thinking through things thoroughly - WIP

I have entertained impure thoughts - H

I have failed to remember people's names - WIP

I have talked too much and given too much detail - WIP

I have been lazy and waited until the last moment to prepare - WIP

I have failed to read many good books - WIP

I have used food as a recreation or a medication and have eaten too fast and without gratitude - H

