

Life Lessons from Grandpa

(How to live a high quality life in the midst of a battle)

Proverbs 6:6-8

Take a lesson from the ants, you lazybones. Learn from their ways and be wise! Even though they have no prince, governor, or ruler to make them work, they labor hard all summer, gathering food for the winter.

Little right things done over a long period of time pay huge dividends.

10 “Little Right Things” That Will Make all the Difference in Your Life

1. Use a day planner and put the important things on your calendar first
(have the integrity and discipline to honor those commitments)

2. Become as physically healthy as you can (eat smart, drink lots of water, lift some weight, and get some rest)

3. Live simply
(be less busy: spend less than you earn; become a generous and cheerful giver)

4. Be kind at all times
(avoid anger; forgive quickly and completely)

5. Always speak the truth as you understand it
(be a person of integrity)

6. Give your best to your family
(work hard while you are at work; then leave your work at work)

7. Don't worry
(take some risks --- be grateful in all circumstances)

8. Do all the good you can for all the people you can
(bear the burdens of others and help the poor,)

9. Develop some close friendships
10. (use kind words and shared experiences to build strong relationships)

10. Love God with all your heart
(get to know Him through prayer, His Word, and intimate fellowship with other believers)

Self-centeredness and happiness are mutually exclusive!
