

Keys to Success

Josh 1:8 NIV

Do not let this Book of the Law depart from your mouth; meditate on it day and night, so that you may be careful to do everything written in it. Then you will be prosperous and successful.

Seven Decisions You Must Make to Be Successful

from Andy Andrew's The Traveler's Gift

Decision #1 - THE BUCK STOPS HERE

Quit blaming others. Adversity is preparation for greatness.

Decision #2 – I WILL SEEK WISDOM

- a. Read good books with a highlighter in your hand.
- b. Hang out with successful people.
- c. Serve others.

Decision #3 – I WILL BECOME A PERSON OF ACTION

Seize the moment; choose immediacy

Successful people make up their minds quickly and change them slowly;
Unsuccessful people make up their minds slowly and change them quickly.

Decision #4 – I HAVE A DEDICATED HEART

You can't worry about what your critics say; no one is liked by everyone.
Whenever you are trying to accomplish something unrealistic, people won't like it and will be threatened. Passion allows you to overcome insurmountable obstacles.

Decision #5 – I WILL BE HAPPY TODAY

Learn how to express gratitude (who is packing your parachute?)

Being a happy person will affect our finances more than any other decision; happy people make more money because others will invite them to share in their opportunities. Smile while you talk* (Andy's biggest secret).

Decision #6 – I WILL GREET THIS DAY WITH A FORGIVING SPIRIT

I don't want to manage my anger --- I want to get rid of it. Forgiveness is the ultimate course in anger management. The offender does not have to ask for it or deserve it. Forgive yourself – deal with guilt thoroughly.

Decision #7 – I WILL PERSIST WITHOUT EXCEPTION

Persistence is a habit and so is quitting.
