

Money

1. Money is like a sixth sense, and you can't make use of the other five without it.
-- W. Somerset Maugham
2. I'm tired of love, I'm still more tired of rhyme, but money gives me pleasure all the time.
-- Hilaire Belloc
3. The safest way to double your money is to fold it over once and put it in your pocket.
-- Kin Hubbard
4. The chief value of money lies in the fact that one lives in a world in which it is overestimated.
-- H. L. Mencken
5. Money is not required to buy one necessity of the soul.
-- Henry David Thoreau
6. The use of money is all the advantage there is in having it.
-- Benjamin Franklin
7. Money does all things for reward. Some are pious and honest as long as they thrive upon it, but if the devil himself gives better wages, they soon change their party.
-- Seneca
8. He that is of the opinion money will do everything may well be suspected of doing everything for money.
-- Benjamin Franklin
9. Never ask of money spent
Where the spender thinks it went.
Nobody was ever meant
To remember or invent
What he did with every cent.
-- Robert Frost
10. Put not your trust in money, but put your money in trust.
-- Oliver Wendell Holmes
11. Money often costs too much.
-- Ralph Waldo Emerson
