

Spiritual disciplines

The disciple or apprentice of Jesus, as recognized by the New Testament, is one who has firmly decided to learn from Him how to lead his or her life, whatever that may be, as Jesus himself would do it. And, as best they know how, they are making plans--taking the necessary steps, progressively arranging and rearranging their affairs---to do this. Dallas Willard

The Two Primary Objectives of Discipleship Training (Dallas Willard)

1. To bring apprentices to the point where they dearly love and constantly delight in their "heavenly Father" who was made real to earth in Jesus and are quite certain that there is no "catch," no limit, to the goodness of His intentions or to His power to carry them out.
2. To remove our automatic responses against the Kingdom of God, to free the apprentices of domination, of "enslavement" (John 8:34; Rom 6:6) to their old habitual patterns of thought, feeling, and action.
